Superintendent's Message

Dear friend:

A century ago, our western frontier was pierced with the steel of American railroads. This irresistible link, born in the crucible of danger and dare, served as an artery for our great republic.

As today's youth, you have much in common with those nation spanners of yesteryear. You are building the roadbed of tomorrow. May your roadbed of life be tamped securely with the sweat of honest, hard work and the tears of sacrifice. May it contain the ballast of Christian morality to support today's traffic and also tomorrow's. May it be fortified with faith to assure the enjoyment of safety and a measure of lasting quality—a monument to its builders.

Most sincerely,

JOHN W. KHOURI

Students:

As you glance through this book in years to come we, the MUHLTOHI staff hope you will recall the many smiles, sorrows, and dreams of '55 and '56 at Muhlenberg. We would like to thank the faculty, students, and friends who helped us to make this book possible.

We hope that each and every student will feel that this is solely his yearbook. The 1956 MUHLTOHI is yours. You made it; we preserved it through word and pictures.

Sincerely yours,
